This course will assist learners with an intellectual disability to articulate into vocational pathways and to develop the skills and abilities to direct their own progress. It is designed for a cohort of young adults that are approximately 18 to 25 years of age.

STUDENTS WILL DEVELOP SKILLS IN
- Communication
- Introductory maths
- Introductory computer and internet use
- Personal development
- Community participation

STUDY MODES AND DURATION
Part-time - 32 weeks
Monday and Friday
9AM - 1PM

LOCATION
West Coast Institute
35 Kendrew Crescent
Joondalup, WA

UNIT OUTLINE
- 21739 - Communication
- 80992 - Introduction to Practical Numeracy
- 80993 - Personal Development
- 80994 - Introduction to Technology
- 21743 - Program Support I
- 21744 - Community Participation I
- 21746 - Learning Through Practice I
- 21757 - Personal Development II

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS
There are no formal entry requirements. However students and parents/carers must attend a face-to-face interview to assess student suitability. This course has been designed for young adults with intellectual disabilities. Students may be required to bring a carer to class depending on their needs.

FEES AND CHARGES
Approximate fee is $300.

HOW TO APPLY AND ENROL
Please email Carolyn Gerrans at carolyn.gerrans@wcit.wa.edu.au for further information or to arrange an interview.